

Youth Program Registration Form

Welcome to (Name of Program)! We are glad that you will be one of this year's participants. It is important to us to know something about you and what your experience in (Name of Program) is like for you. We use this information to find out what works and what doesn't. That way we can build a better program in the future.

Take a few minutes to fill out the survey and then mail the completed survey to _____ at _____. No one in your school and no one at _____ will ever know what you write down. Everything you say will be kept secret.

I really want to graduate from college.
Other people decide what happens to me.
I think I will have a nice family when I get older.
Finishing high school is important.
I am afraid my life will be unhappy.
School is a waste of time.
It is important to think before you act.
Bad things happen to people like me.
I try hard to do well in school.
If I study hard, I will get better grades.
I think I can have a nice house when I grow up.
I will probably never have enough money.
A lot of days I would rather not go to school.
When I try to be nice, people notice.
